

COMMUNITY FORUM

Borders and Identity CALL TO ACTION

Please join us for an evening forum as we view and discuss a video of Jose Antonio Vargas addressing “The borders within my identity” which include immigrant rights, LGBTQ rights, undocumented immigrants, and the church. This presentation was originally delivered at the Earl-Boswell Lecture* in March 2017 at Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, California.

Mr. Vargas is a Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist, filmmaker, immigration activist, and founder of Define American, a non-profit media and culture organization that seeks to elevate the conversation around immigration and citizenship in America.

Monday, June 26

7:00 – 9:00 pm

Lake Oswego United Church of Christ

1111 Country Club Road

Lake Oswego, Oregon

Open to the public

Free will offering for immigrant support organizations

Questions: Rev. Linda Jaramillo, linda@loucc.org

*The Earl-Boswell Lecture was a two-day conference addressing the critical theological, pastoral and social issues of our day, aimed to equip leaders to stand for justice with all those on the margins and borders. Pacific School of Religion has hosted the Earl Lectures and Leadership Conference for more than 100 years. The 2017 Lecture was presented in partnership with the Center for LGBTQ and Gender Studies in Religion’s Boswell Lecture.